The Labour Market Group set to host the 2009 Local Boards Provincial Conference

North Bay, ON – The Labour Market Group, (formally the Muskoka, Nipissing, Parry Sound Local Training and Adjustment Board) will be hosting the 2009 Local Boards Provincial Conference at the Best Western North Bay Hotel and Conference Centre May 6-8th, 2009.

There are 25 Local Boards across Ontario that conduct grassroots research and actively engage organizations and community partners in local labour market development. While each Local Board area is unique with its own characteristics; they work to address the local labour market issues, collaborate on activities that expand the local boundaries and maximize community resources.

The Labour Market Group is very excited to be hosting the 2009 Provincial Conference. “This is a wonderful opportunity to bring the Local Boards from across the province to experience the beauty of North Bay”. Andrea Stoppa, Acting Executive Director.

The Provincial Conference provides an opportunity for the Local Boards to network and address the local issues and opportunities Province wide.
